

Journal of Law, Finance, and Accounting (JLFA) 2019 Conference Announcement and Call for Papers

September 6 & 7, 2019

New York University

The Journal of Law, Finance, and Accounting (JLFA) is pleased to announce its 9th conference, to be held in New York on Friday, September 6 and Saturday, September 7, 2019. The conference is co-organized by the NYU Stern School of Business and the NYU School of Law.

ABOUT JLFA:

JLFA is an interdisciplinary journal sponsored by the NYU Stern School of Business and the NYU School of Law. It seeks to publish top-quality empirical, theoretical, and policy-oriented scholarship at the intersection of law, finance and accounting. Prior JLFA conferences were held at New York University (2014), The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (2015, 2017, 2019), Harvard University (2015), Northwestern Law School (2016), London Business School (2017) and University of Padova (2018).

JLFA is an open-access publication. Papers published on JLFA, through volume 3 (2018), can be downloaded free of charge from www.jlfaonline.com.

PAPER SUBMISSION PROCEDURE:

You are invited to submit your original, unpublished papers for presentation at the conference. Accepted papers will be eligible for expedited review and consideration for publication in JLFA. In choosing papers for presentation at the conference, we will give priority to papers which the authors wish to submit to JLFA for consideration for publication. Publication is at the editors' discretion.

The deadline for submission is Friday, May 31st, 2019. Please submit papers at http://nyustern.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_7X9QoZgSsg2shdr.

TOPICS:

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. The impact of the structure of the legal system - including legal origins, procedural rules, and the legal environment in general, on the evolution of financial contracts, financial markets, business enterprises and business groups.

2. The impact of particular legal and market institutions, including accounting, on financial markets and corporate actions, and innovation, economic growth and stability.
3. The co-evolution of the legal rules and market institutions that govern financial sector activity, that activity itself, and the nature of the broader economy and financial markets.
4. The regulation, organization, and performance of financial institutions.
5. The relationships between the structure and performance of financial institutions, and the performance of these institutions and the overall performance of financial markets and economies.
6. The interplay between legal rules, accounting regulations, corporate governance, firm performance, cost of equity and debt capital, financial market performance, and economic performance.
7. The political economy of the regulation of corporate governance, financial institutions, and financial markets.
8. Accounting, finance, and legal issues concerning ownership and property.
