

Online Appendix
Elite Polarization and Partisan Think Tanks

Appendix Table 1: Average Real Annual Revenue of the four largest Partisan Think Tanks

Partisan Think Tank	Revenue
American Enterprise Institute	$27.6m
Center on Budget and Policy Priorities	$20.5m
Center for American Progress	$32.9m
Heritage Foundation	$63.1m

Notes: 2009 dollars. Includes the 501(c) companion organizations of the Center for American Progress and Heritage Foundation. Data collected from ProPublica's Non-Profit Explorer database of IRS Form 990 disclosures.

Appendix Table 2: Heritage Foundation Revenue Archival Sources

Years	Source
1973-1976	1976 IRS Form 990
1977	1977 IRS Form 990
1978-1980	1983 Heritage Foundation Annual Report
1981-1991	1991 Heritage Foundation Annual Report
1992	Interpolated
1993-1994	1994 Heritage Foundation Annual Report
1995	(Solomon 1996)
1996	1996 Heritage Foundation Annual Report
1997-2017	IRS Form 990s (retrieved from ProPublica Non-Profit Explorer)

Notes: The 1976 and 1977 IRS Form 990s were collected from records found in Document Cloud.